Long Term Stay, Long Term 30+ Nights

- Deposit Policy: An amount equal to one months' rent will be charged upon signing of the rental agreement and is non-refundable.

- Cancellation Policy: If cancelled more than one month before date of arrival, only the deposit will be withheld. If cancelled more than one month prior to arrival, or in case of no-show, the full term of contract is payable. The resort reserves the right to determine in individual cases, which case is eligible for an exception on this rule.

Earlier termination of the contract is not allowed. If the stay is shortened and payment has been made already for a certain period, there is no refund on nights not used. The tenant will be responsible for the complete period of the contract. The resort reserves the right to determine in individual cases, which case is eligible for an exemption on this rule.
